Character evaluation:

Character is a quality that goes beyond being a good person. The Service Honor Society defines a person of Character as one whom:

1. Upholds Christian moral and ethical principles of behavior.
2. Consistently exemplifies desirable qualities of behavior.
3. Demonstrates the highest standards of honesty and responsibility.
4. Takes criticism willingly and accepts recommendations graciously.
5. Is generous with their time, and takes initiative in offering help.

Please rate the above student in relation to their character qualities:

1	2	3	4	5
(Lowest)				(Highest)

Please describe your experience with the student in relation to their character qualities. Be as specific as possible.
